

WHAT THEY WANT

People cutting across sectors have their wishlist ready ahead of H D Kumaraswamy presenting his second budget on Friday

Health

Dr Chytra V Anand,
Founder, Kosmoderma
Skin & Hair Clinic

- Education sector needs more funds. Better facilities needed at government schools
- Focus should be on skill upgradation as there is dearth of skill in graduates
- Primary health centres outside Bengaluru need support
- More focus needed on Bengaluru's infrastructure
- State government should invest more in police and para medical forces

Self-employed

Ranjit Kumar Surana,
Senior citizen

- Roads and footpaths should be made senior citizen-friendly
- At hospitals, free treatment for senior citizens must be introduced
- There should be additional financial aid to senior citizens who get less than `10,000 as pension per month
- Safety of senior citizens in a city like Bengaluru a concern
- Govt should start a home for senior citizens

Farmer

Manjunath BR, award-winning progressive farmer

- Schemes needed to encourage integrated farming system
- Irrigation schemes to help farmers who are not covered by irrigation
- Programmes to help and support farmers in distress
- Revising Minimum Support Price to help farmers by providing better price for their agricultural produce
- A system to check middlemen

Cinema

Rakshit Shetty,
Kannada actor

- Peripheral Ring Road in Bengaluru should be completed
- Government should bring out schemes to reduce traffic
- Government should set up small multiplexes in Tier II and III cities
- Sanction Kannada film industry a studio like Hyderabad's Ramoji Film City
- Have smaller studios in Tier II cities like Mangaluru

Student

Pratyusha Prabhakar,
PU II student

- Higher fund allocation for education sector
- Provide career and mental health counsellors in colleges
- Introduce skill development courses
- Provide sanitary napkin vending machines at public places and even colleges for free
- Since I love travelling, fare for business class in flights should be the same as economy class